

Meet Dr. David Black

Looking for a speaker who can relate to the average dentist and provide practical answers for the hard questions that arise in every dental practice?

Drawing from 40+ years of clinical experience practicing in a small suburban blue collar town - as well as Pankey-Dawson clinical training, Dr. David Black helps dentists and their teams increase profitability, patient standard of care and peace of mind through attention to key systems.

A dental leader in local societies and projects, and state dental board of directors, committees and task forces, Dr. Black's proven leadership and administrative skill were fundamental in developing a successful restorative and cosmetic practice. Over the years Dr. Black has hired and mentored dozens of dentists, proven his systems for creating a highly-profitable, low-overhead business model, and provided outstanding patient care.

Dr. Black's retirement planning course provides attendees with detailed steps to assess their level of readiness and what they need to do to accumulate enough to retire at their desired standard of living, no matter the stage of their career.

TESTIMONIALS

"Dr. Black is very eager to teach and brings with him many years of practical private practice knowledge to share with residents. He is very open to questions and discussions that range from clinical dentistry topics to practical dentistry topics. Dr. Black has always been very kind and has expressed a desire to help residents in any way that he can." Dr. David Brajdic, Director of Residency Program Carilion Clinic, Roanoke, VA

"Before any doctor transitions out of their private practice they need to hear Dr. David Black's captivating story." Ann C. Huffman, Executive Director Piedmont Dental Society

"Our office had a great time with Dr. Black and all emphasized how wonderful he was to have. He provided valuable insight in a way that connected with the team and helped them understand the need to analyze the way we do things. It was great to see everyone excited about implementing change that would benefit both the office and our patients' experiences. Thank you Dr. Black!" Josh Nelson, Managing Partner Blue Ridge Dental Group
